Sarkaryawah Dattatreya Hosbale of Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh calls for steadfast National Resolve for Return of Kashmiri Pandits to their Homeland. Supports Demand for revival of destroyed Temples and Shrines. Endorses Setting up of an Educational Institution which will be a center of excellence including on Sharda script.

In his hard-hitting address to the Global Kashmiri Pandit community on their auspicious Navreh celebrations, Honorable Sarkaryawah Dattatreya Hosbale of Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh squarely held the Terrorists responsible for the seventh Genocide and Ethnic Cleansing of Kashmiri Pandits from their homeland. To face the militant Islamist threat would require Ekta, Unity. He recognized that invaders had continuously oppressed the Kashmiri Pandits who historically had to either lose their homeland or lose their dharma.

He stated that India was at a historic crossroad given the positive change that was sweeping Kashmir. That a new staircase could take Kashmir to a bright future. For Kashmiri Pandits it needed a Sankalp, a unified resolve to give direction and specificity to the vision. He blessed and endorsed the Kashmiri Pandit community on their mission to return to Kashmir by next Navreh. The final solution to continuous Kashmiri Pandit genocide had to be such that they would never have to suffer again.

Hosbale hailed Sirya Bhatta and Lalitaditya as two icons of Kashmir who were exemplary role models of sacrifice and bravery. He shared the story of Guru Tegh Bahadur who fought for the Kashmiri Pandits. He especially recognized the pain and suffering of the Kashmiri Pandits who had to face unremitting violence and lost their lives, their land, their living, their way of life and were reduced to Internally Displaced People. He named Pandit Tika Lal Taploo, Justice Ganjoo, Sarla Bhatt .. who were murdered heinously and whose only crime was that they were Hindus.

Hosbale was scathing in his criticism that Kashmir's Sanskritic civilization should not be relegated to a museum or into books or Bollywood films. It had to be present in Kashmiri society, in the households, in the daily way of life.

Utpal Kaul, GKPD India Coordinator stated, 'Honorable Hosbale's highly motivating speech and commitment to the Kashmiri Pandit cause is consistent with their long-term support. Guru Golwalkar played a key role in convincing the Maharaja to accede to India. During the horror of 1990, RSS gave humanitarian aid and support to the beleaguered community. His ringing support for revival of Sharada Civilization is an important endorsement of our cause and we look forward to their support for the Temple and Shrines Protection and Governance Acts.'

Hosbale named the Temples of Khir Bhavani, Martand Temple and Avantipura as urgently needing repair and revival. He expressed the desire that Sharadapeeth University should be reborn.

Nirja Sadhu International Coordinator stated, 'Honorable Hosbale's talk represents an important step in the engagement of the Kashmiri Pandit community with dharmic forces. We thank RSS for giving a clear call that the Hindu civilizational heritage of Kashmir should be brought back to life through a partnership between the Government and Civil Society. GKPD will build on this encouraging dialog and seek to expand the support of RSS for all aspects of Justice for Kashmiri Pandit Genocide and Ethnic Cleansing as laid out in the memorandum presented to Honorable Prime Minister Modi.'

GKPD wishes Honorable Sarsanghchalak Mohan Bhagwat ji well and looks forward to welcoming him for a talk in the future as part of building civil society momentum for #recogniseKPgenocide. GKPD also thanks the thousands of global community members who participated in the Navreh festival. GKPD is especially grateful to Prime Minister Modi for his Navreh greetings to the community. We look forward to greater, across the board engagement in the Naya Varsh.
